

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Exchange information on instructions about basic activities and safety at work.

Can Do Statements

- I can respond to good and bad news.
- I can ask for missing information.
- I can express permission, possibility, or ability.

Ask your partner:

- What can you say when someone tells you good news?
- What can you say when someone tells you bad news?

Let's Explore!

Peter calls* Mr. Jones back. What does he tell him?

* Remember when you "call" someone, it can be a formal or informal telephone call.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Good morning. Can I speak to Mr. Jones please?
Jenny: Can you wait, please?
Mr. Jones: Hello. This is Mr. Jones.
Peter: This is Peter. How are you?
Mr. Jones: I'm well thanks.
Peter: Yes, I'm calling in response to your voicemail.
Mr. Jones: Well Peter, the waiting is over. I have news for you. We love your personality. We think you can do well in an office job.
Peter: I'm glad to hear that!
Mr. Jones: After much consideration, I want to tell you that you are a great candidate. I regret to say you are not the candidate we are looking for now.
Peter: That's too bad! I can't believe it!
Mr. Jones: Do we have all your information?
Peter: Hmm ... Not my home number.
Mr. Jones: Oh, I can write it down. We can call when another job comes up.

Let's Practice!

Peter wants to talk to Mr. Jones. What does he say?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- |                   |                               |
|-------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Can I speak to | a. when another job comes up. |
| 2. Can you        | b. Mr. Jones please?          |
| 3. I can          | c. write it down.             |
| 4. We can call    | d. wait, please?              |

Let's Practice!

I have some good news to share! I have some bad news to share! How do you respond?

Instructions: Write the expressions in the correct category.

Congratulations! / That's too bad! / That's fantastic! /
I'm glad to hear that! / Oh no!

| Responding to good news | Responding to bad news |
|-------------------------|------------------------|
|                         |                        |

Extension Activity

You have some news to share with your friend. How do they respond?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Find a partner.
- Share some good or bad news with them.
- Your partner responds to the news.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I find a partner to role-play an activity.

☐ ☐

I give good or bad news to a partner.

☐ ☐

I respond to good or bad news.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- in response to (expression): something that you say or write as a reaction to something else
e.g. I'm calling in response to your voicemail.
- voicemail (noun): a recorded message a person leaves on the phone e.g. I am listening to your voicemail.
- news (noun): new information
e.g. I have some bad news!
- to regret (verb): to say that you are sorry for something e.g. I regret to inform you that you are not who we are looking for.
- to write down (verb): to write something on a piece of paper e.g. Let me write it down for you.
- to come up (verb): to appear
e.g. My e-mails aren't coming up.

Learning Points

Responding to Good and Bad News

Here are the different ways to respond to good and bad news.

|                         | Examples                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| To respond to good news | Congratulations!That's great/fantastic/wonderful!What great/fantastic/wonderful news!That's great/fantastic/wonderful news!I'm glad to hear that! |
| To respond to bad news  | Oh no/dear!That's too bad!I can't believe it!I'm sorry to hear that ...That's unfortunate/awful!I know how you must be feeling!        |

The Modal Can

You use the modal can for 3 things:

- to ask and talk about what is possible.
- to say you have an ability or know how to do something.
- to ask for permission or give someone permission.

| Use         | Examples                                 |
|-------------|------------------------------------------|
| Possibility | Can you please wait?              |
| Ability     | I can write it down.              |
| Permission  | Can I speak to Mr. Jones, please? |

