Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask who, what, when, where questions.
- I can talk about clothes and accessories.

Ask your partner:

- What clothes do you wear to a party?
- What clothes do you wear to a job interview?

Let's Explore!

What do you wear to a job interview? Let's find out.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

How should I dress for my interview?

Interviews are about making good first impressions. You can do this wearing the right clothes. Here are a few tips about how to dress for success.

What should I wear?

Men should wear:

- A suit
- Long sleeve dress shirt
- A belt
- A tie

Women should wear:

- Trousers or a skirt (by the knee)
- A blouse
- Light makeup

What should I not wear?

Men or women should not wear:

- Jeans
- Dirty or ripped clothing
- Lots of makeup

Why should I not wear these?

You should not wear casual wear because it is important to dress professionally in formal wear.

- Buy a few interview outfits.
- Remember to check the company's dress code.
- Wear the correct attire.

Learning Points

Casual vs. Formal Clothing

You dress in different clothes depending on where you are going. Look at the different ways to dress below. We call these different ways dress codes. There are formal and informal dress codes.

Here are some examples of dress codes for men:

Formal	Black Tie	a white dress shirt, black bow tie, suit jacket, black shoes
	Business Formal	matching suit (dress pants and jacket)
	Business Casual	khakis, shirts
Informal	Casual	jeans, t-shirts, sneakers
