Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Peter's job interview is tomorrow. Is he ready?

Learning Outcome

Exchange information on instructions about basic activities and safety at work.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the long u sound.
- I can disagree politely.
- I can express permission.

Ask your partner:

- How do you prepare for an interview?
- What do you wear?

Let's Explore!

Peter has an interview tomorrow. Listen to the conversation between Peter and Vanessa. Is he ready?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Peter, do you have a job interview?
- Peter: Yes, tomorrow in the afternoon.
- Vanessa: That's fantastic! Congratulations!
- Peter: Thanks, but there are a lot of things to organize.
- Vanessa: Well, you do need to wear a suit. Your navy blue one is nice.
- Peter: Yes, but it's a bit small. I'll wear the grey one and my new pair of shoes too!
- Vanessa: What else do you need to do?
- Peter: I need to bring my updated résumé.
- Vanessa: Updated? How often do you update it?
- Peter: Every time I change jobs or finish a course.
- Vanessa: I see. Anything else?
- Peter: Can I use your black briefcase? I want to look professional.
- Vanessa: No problem. Can I meet you after the interview? At the coffee shop ... Ned's?
- Peter: Actually, we always go there. Let's go to the juice bar. They make a great smoothie. Meet me at two o'clock.
- Vanessa: OK.

Learning Points

Disagreeing Politely

The words "I disagree" are often too strong. You can use more polite expressions to disagree with someone.

To politely disagree with someone, you can say:

I'm afraid I disagree.

I beg to differ.

I'm not so sure about that.

Not necessarily.

I'm sorry, but I don't agree.

Yes, but ...

Actually, ...

When you agree or disagree you use the Present Simple tense.

Examples:

• Vanessa: No problem. Can I meet you after the interview? At the coffee shop ... Ned's?

Peter: Actually, we always go there. Let's go to the juice bar.

Responding to Good News

There are different ways to respond to good news.

- Congratulations!
- That's great/fantastic/wonderful!
- What great/fantastic/wonderful news!
- That's great/fantastic/wonderful news!
- I'm glad to hear that!

Examples:

• Lisa: I have a new job!

James: That's fantastic! Congratulations.
